NEW MOON NOTICE

New Moon in Libra, Saturday, October 14 at 1:55 pm ET

Hello!

The month of October is always welcome...it's the time that the fall season is at its most beautiful. If you live under the equator, it's a time of new blossoms and fresh green buds on the trees.

The moon sign is one that relates to grace and beauty. Libra is a sign that is all about making whatever you have more beautiful, especially anything that comes in pairs.

Libra's scales remind us of the importance of balance and how changing one thing affects another. We are a trunk that is split by pairs of arms and legs. Try on some new jeans or a pair of pretty bangle bracelets to show off your arms.

This sign also rules your low back, so this is a good time to be thinking of doing things to take care of your low back, or making your backside more attractive!

Look at your mattress to make sure it is up to the job and that you don't wake up in the morning with an aching back. If so, it could be time to give your mattress the heave-ho or invest in a new, supportive mattress topper.

Look at beautifying everywhere this month.

Some new shades of lipstick, a new throw pillow or two is all it takes to make your home and wardrobe sparkle with the beauty of the new season. Libra loves a beautiful home and lovely fashions so indulge in some beautification and then blame it all on the moon!

The other side

The other side of Libra is that it can work so hard at keeping everything "balanced" and harmonious, that the balance can leave you feeling like you're walking a tightrope.

In that instance, any misstep can cause you to fall or your tower of cards come tumbling down.

Another way to look at the Libra New Moon is by releasing what no longer feels balanced or harmonious.

What does that look like?

It may mean a relationship that demands more from you and doesn't give enough, or when you are trying to keep the status quo even when it's time to move on, keeping yourself trapped in a difficult (co-dependent?) situation.

If that's happening, it's time to tip the scales in your favor.

Have a beautiful October! I'll talk to you again in November.
