MOVE ENERGY, MAKE MONEY

FENGSHUI Insider

DECEMBER HOROSCOPES

This month is always magical with the glittering holiday lights and festive decorations. It's hard not to feel happy when the holidays roll around, but the 7 star will be making some tension here at the holidays.

The bright spot?

There's no zodiac sign that has this star to deal with it. Whew! With the 7 star flying to the center, it means that the cutting energy isn't felt by any one zodiac sign, and that's a relief here at the holidays.

Let's talk about who has the best luck here at the last month of the year...

First up are the northwest and northeast signs of dog, pig, ox and tiger.

The dog and pig have had the 5 Yellow to deal with all year and this month it's joined by the 8 star so maybe Santa will have a nice check to put in your stocking. Your money outlook will be looking up here at the holidays...just go easy on holiday spending.

The same is true for the ox and tiger who have had to deal with the 7 cutting star all year long. But in December, the 1 water star of Victory comes in and sparkles with opportunities frothing up like bubbles in a Champagne glass! Look for opportunities and little victories this month and do something unexpected. You'll be glad you did.

Also in line for a lovely month are the signs dragon, snake, sheep, monkey, and rooster.

There's a lineup of happy and beneficial energies that will keep you feeling bubbly this holiday season that range from windfalls, surprise checks, travel, romance, and maybe the best of all? A happy, hopeful feeling.

There are a couple of signs, though, that will need to be vigilant this month.

The first is the rabbit which could have some health concerns or difficulties that come up. With the 5 Yellow coming to visit, be careful walking, driving, and with your overall health. Don't take chances with money either. It's a good time to be extra cautious and keep a low profile.

This month rats are in a.....mood.

This is a month when everything and everyone could be working your last nerve. Try to keep to yourself and avoid snapping. On a positive note, it's also a good month to handle any legal issues that are outstanding as you will want to have matters in writing and keep track of documentation carefully.

Horses will need to keep tabs on health as the 2 star comes to visit and could bring you a holiday virus at the worst or stomach upset from all the rich foods at best. Have plenty of good healthy foods and vitamins (and antacids) on hand this month and be sure to dress warmly and avoid unhealthy people and crowds.

Have a wonderful holiday season and thank you for being with me this year. I wish you a wonderful and memorable December and a Happy New Year! Welcome 2024!

YOUR MONTHLY HOROSCOPE

Rabbit

Keep tabs on health and money

Even if it's the holidays, it might be a good idea to make it a quiet month. That's because December is a month that puts you at risk for health problems or injuries. If possible, try to stay close to home or schedule a quiet holiday where you can hang out and relax. The energies this month are ones that could cause you to lose money or have you handling injuries or illness. Be careful with health and spending. If something comes up, like a strange-looking mole, get it checked out right way. Now is not the time to make a major move like moving your money or making a new investment plan. Wait until next month when you have a brand-new set of sweet energies for health and wealth. Wear plenty of metal jewelry and white colors to help keep you feeling your best, sweet rabbit. Wear plenty of real gold or silver jewelry, pearls, and light or white colors to help keep you feeling your best.

Dragon

Fortune shines on you this month

Are you ready for a nice surprise, dragon? You might just find yourself flush with cash this month as you are set to be surprised in the most pleasant ways. Buy those lottery tickets, and if you have some old stuff around the house that someone else would enjoy, put it up on an auction site. The right people will be in the right place at the right time for you, so look for introductions, networking support and help from unexpected people and places. Prestige comes your way like a limo stopping so you can step out on a red carpet while everyone admires you. Look to others who can give you a hand up or make important connections for you. Dress to impress and wear pretty blingy jewelry and sparkling clothes so no one can miss you!

Snake

Watch for falling stars, windfalls, and surprises

December has a lot to offer you, Snake. The heaven star shines on you bringing attention to you from far and wide, and it may even come with a check attached. Pleasant surprises will be yours for the taking (like a big check in your stocking), and considering the energy you're dealing with this year, you'll be glad to have them. As always read the fine print and call in help when you need it, such as an accountant or attorney. The right people will be in the right place at the right time for you, and they will spread your name paving the way for you effortlessly. Watch for opportunities to mingle with others of influence and who gladly invite you into their elite circle. Enjoy this month and the holidays as this will be one of your best months and just in time to close out the year. You might even want to buy a scratch off or a lottery ticket. You have some winning energy behind you. Wear eye-catching jewelry and clothes this month so you keep all eyes on you.

Horse

Watch your health and finances in December

Whatever comes up this month in terms of problems whether with money, health, or a leaky faucet, make sure you take care of it right away or it could grow much worse or take longer to resolve. Watch health such as stomach issues. Avoid spicy foods or overindulging in your holiday foods like sweets and rich foods. One nice takeaway for the month is that you have a nice potential for making money. This could be through stocks, real estate, or even a job offer or putting your house up for sale. An opportunity could come through teaming up or from an important woman. Watch for those opportunities. One other possibility is that you finalize a matter or bring a project to completion. That could be a legal matter that gets wrapped up, a project you complete, or the ending of something that's been ongoing. Be glad to close this door and be content about it here as the year winds down. Wear light colors and real metal jewelry, such as gold and silver.

Sheep

Circulate and enjoy your attention this month

If you've wanted to travel or get out of town, why not do it now -- or at least make your plans this month? This is a month when you will feel connected and like things come to you by synchronicity. You'll have opportunities to express yourself creatively, romantically, and take in some sights. Be sure to make yourself available for all these possibilities. Have you wanted to write a book or script? This is a good month to get started or to send in any manuscripts you have lying around because you have creative luck behind you. This month will be like a window opened and a beautiful cool breeze that blows in through the white curtains and you can hear the birds chirping. For you, that might look like taking a class, enrolling in a course, or booking a getaway. There's also a nice romance vibe, too. Who knows? You might just meet someone special because all month you'll have a glow others will find irresistible, especially when you're in your holiday finery.

Monkey

Love, beauty, and travel are coming your way

Just about everything you love in life – learning, moving and travel and love – are all on tap for you in the month ahead. You'll have plenty of interest this month in creating social opportunities to meet other eligible singles where you live. If you're already coupled, your monkey motor will be revving up for your sweetheart. Look for chances to take a class, give a talk, write, or travel. All these activities are enhanced for you in the month of December. How about heading to Iceland to view the Northern Lights? Talk about magical...and that's what December will feel like. Add flowers to your home to keep your mood light and happy. The only watch on the horizon is if your sweetie has a roaming eye. Don't be caught off guard, and if single, watch out for those only out for a good time. Make sure their intentions are true. You deserve honest and sweet love and all the best of the holidays can offer... how about romantic New Year's Eve for two? Now that sounds extra nice.

ROOSTER

You are the darling of the party in December

Rooster, you have got a sparkling month ahead this holiday season. It seems that your name will be on everyone's lips or at the very least, and you'll be on everyone's invitation list. In other words, you are going to be extremely popular in the coming month. Roosters are going to be extra happy with all the energy that comes your way this December (not to mention all the eyes on you), something that your sign is used to. You love all that recognition energy and you will love all the opportunities to connect with friends and family as they pop in and out of your life this month. The only concern is the potential for fatigue and that could make you snap, and few signs can be as surly as a mad rooster, so try to stay rested so you stay bubbly and sweet. This month will be fun galore and next month? Well, that's when the money comes pouring in! You have a lot to look forward this holiday season. Wear bright and sparkling clothes and jewelry so everyone knows when the rooster steps into the room.

DOG

Income and financial progress come your way

You're going to like this month so much more than many of the months in 2023. Good news for you, too, may land in your lap from work you've done previously. There could be some new job potential or investment opportunity. If you've been trying to sell a house, get a promotion, or change jobs or finagle a raise, it could happen for you here at the holidays and the end of the year. It's not a bad way to close out the year. Yep, this could be the month it all happens. Take advantage of any opportunities that come up this month because they're likely to be gone by January, so don't dilly dally if you sniff out an opportunity now. Look for areas where you can make some financial gains, such as investments, or applying for a job that includes a step up in salary or position. Look sharp and dress nicely this month in a way that makes you feel wealthy.

PIG

Watch for new opportunities to make more money or gain in prestige

December will be coming up roses for you. Wealth and opportunity energy is all in your corner and you are the one who can be there to strike when the iron is hot. It's just your nature. You could find you are in the right place at the right time or meet the right person who can make good introductions for a career or business opportunity. One thing is for sure, this is the month to act on all your chances to make the most of them. It's also a great time to start a savings account or put your valuables in a safe deposit box. December might be the month you catch a really nice break, possible rebates on purchased items or refunds to your credit card – or checks in the mail you didn't expect. Watch for new investments that you can get into now for profits later. Enjoy but keep a lid on holiday purchases or you could have a big bill next month that reflects your holiday largesse. Wear pearls and blue or purple gems.

RAT

Keep your temper and read the fine print

Rats may seem placid, but they can see their tempers flare quickly. However, this is the month when you'll need to keep your cool and instead find ways to burn off some of the excess energy that's coming your way, without losing your temper. If you don't, your temper could rattle the windows. Watch for your tendency to snap instead of expressing frustration before it comes to a head. You may also want to double check anything you sign or be careful with any items of a legal nature. Avoid gossip and relationship triangles. It's possible you will have some difficulties with family or at work, like testy problems that rear their heads at home and on the job and work your nerves. Try to walk or do exercises like tai chi or yoga to help you move and relax your mind at the same time. Wear red, orange, coral and pink to hold down these energies and give your energy a boost, too. Read the fine print, check all contracts thoroughly before signing.

OX

This month gives you a big win

You were probably happy to see November fade into the distance as the holidays approach. Last month, if it wasn't one nagging problem, it was 20 of them. Last month could have seen you felled like a tree and off your feet, or running to put out one fire after another. You may have felt out of sorts, something you're not normally one to be. This month will be so much better. You'll receive some nice opportunities for more income, and a relief from some of the bite of the year's energy, which will give you a much needed breather. Step out of your comfort zone and try something new. Energy will support you and crowds will part, so take that chance. Watch for some nice financial surprises and business, investment or career advances. Wear blue and purple colors to attract more opportunity and blue colored gems for victory and transformation. Enjoy this pearl of a month and don't let anything rock your beautiful boat.

Tiger

Money and opportunity combine for you this month

Last month might have found you dealing with small annoyances on the job, at home, or even with your health. All that goes away once we turn the calendar to December here on the cusp of a new year. This month you'll find you are given many opportunities for love, success on the job or in business. December will bring you a pearl (or maybe a strand of them?) that falls in your lap and that could bring you a raise or a promotion from someone of influence...or maybe a nice check from Santa Claus. If you want to compete in any arena, this is the month when the aura of success surrounds you, so stick yourself out there for jobs, promotions, and new opportunities. Try something new, give presentations, submit manuscripts or resumes. You'll find that if you do, this gets you noticed in a way that gains you more prestige and money. You will be rewarded for venturing off the worn path. Wear blue colors and gemstones and pearls to bring more attention (and opportunities) to yourself.
